Dublin, Ireland - May 7, 2024 - AvCon, the premier aviation event organiser, is thrilled to announce the launch of "The Future of Aviation" event, scheduled to take place on November 7th, 2024, at the prestigious Irish Air Corps in Casement Aerodrome, Baldonnel, Co. Dublin.

This ground breaking event aims to showcase the dynamic world of aviation and its myriad career opportunities to over 6,000 enthusiastic students from primary to tertiary education levels, with a special focus on Transition Year students.

Fiona O'Sullivan, the passionate event organiser, envisioned bringing the thrill and excitement of aviation directly to the next generation.
